Escare. - Last Saturday night deputy sheriff J. R. Ruffin, after the train had left the Junction for this place, arrested two suspicious individuals, and being apprehensive of an attempt at rescue, he started for Bolivar with his prisoners on foot. Nothing of note transpired during the dark, fatiguing trump until just about daylight, and when the party had reached the "fill," a short distance beyond Esquire Knights. Here the prisoners were suddenly seized with the idea that escape was possible, and off they darted like deers, and were soon lost to sight.
